Descripiton of accommodation

The cheerfully restored former winegrower's farm is located on one of the best wine routes in the country, directly on the Golser Weinwanderweg. The wonderful vineyards of the Goldberg begin behind the Stadl, which has been transformed into a shady project space from which you can look over Lake Neusiedl, the Leitha Mountains and down to the Hungarian lowlands. Cordiality and attention to detail make up the charm of the house.

Three separately accessible rooms are available. 1x double bed with max. 2 extra beds, 1x double sofa bed, 2x single beds in bunk beds with max. extra bed.
Kitchen with refrigerator, dishwasher and stove is equally available to guests. 8 euros per wash are charged for using the washing machine. Due to as little contact as possible, towels must be taken by the guests themselves during this time of the pandemic measures for reasons of hygiene. Linens are provided.
The guests share the kitchen, the garden & yard, a spacious bathroom with separate shower and bathtub as well as a separate toilet and the spacious living room.
The Stadl, which has been transformed into a pleasantly shady project room, is also available to guests.
Other important information
The Stadl is a suitable space for fun, games and parties, while the courtyard and the apartment are more peaceful.
Playing football is not allowed in the house, in the yard or in the Stadl. Making a fire and barbecuing is not permitted in our house due to the strong winds and the drought in the region.
