Descripiton of accommodation

This furnished room in Velden offers commuters and project staff a straightforward, practical place to stay. The room measures around 10 m², is located on the ground floor of a house, and is set up for one person. The bathroom and toilet – located separately in the corridor – are shared with other residents.

The room comes well-equipped for everyday life: bed linen and towels are included, and a private kitchen with cooking utensils, glasses, and tableware is available. Laundry is covered by a washing machine and dryer, available as shared appliances. Internet and TV are provided, along with a hairdryer, iron and ironing board, vacuum cleaner, and cleaning supplies.

Outdoors, residents can enjoy a shared terrace and garden. Both a charcoal and a gas grill are available for use. A private parking space is also included – a real plus for those commuting by car.

The room is explicitly suitable for construction workers and tradespeople on assignment in the area. Regular cleaning can be arranged at an additional cost.

Velden is situated on Lake Wörthersee and offers good access to the surrounding region. This accommodation is aimed at those looking for a longer-term, no-fuss base in the area.
