Descripiton of accommodation

This well-equipped apartment on the first floor offers around 80 m² of living space and is an ideal base for commuters, project staff, or expats looking for a fully functional temporary home in the Salzburg region.

The apartment features two double bedrooms and one single room, accommodating up to five people with ease. A kitchen, combined living and dining area, and a private bathroom with toilet complete the layout. The balcony provides a pleasant outdoor space, and the shared garden is available for use as well.

The kitchen comes fully stocked with cooking utensils, tableware, a coffee machine, dishwasher, and microwave – everything needed for everyday living. A private washing machine is available in the apartment, alongside a shared machine in the building. A vacuum cleaner and cleaning supplies are on hand; regular cleaning can be arranged at an additional cost.

Wi-Fi and TV are included, a private parking space is available free of charge, and a bicycle storage room can also be used at no extra cost. The apartment is suitable for children; smoking and pets are not permitted.

Hof bei Salzburg is located directly on Lake Waller and offers convenient access to the city of Salzburg – perfect for anyone who values a peaceful living environment without sacrificing good connectivity.
