Descripton of accommodation

Nature is the main focus here and the home is simple, rural.

A house with strength, energy and to mobilize the inner peace. In the peace lies the power... so they say. It is the combination of the mountains, forest, grass, ... that provides security, safety. You will find everything common in the house but the real king is the piece of land around the house.

The furnishings are kept practical. All-wood furnishings. The kitchen is fully equipped. A tiled stove - for down-to-earth people - is available. Under the bed is the yoga mat and the bed is foldable (like closet beds) ... enough space for your first energy workout maybe already in the early morning.
Enjoy being here.
