Descripton of accommodation

For the sake of the environment and for body, mind and soul, we have built this house. Sustainability is written here in capital letters. The wooden house is built with moon wood. Felled at certain moon times, it is first stored/dried. Then the spruce wood is doweled with beech wood dowels. Outside the wood is protected and inside the massive wooden walls are visible. The healing power, the grounding, the gentle medicine of the wood comes to experience here.&nbsp;
