Descripton of accommodation

The brilliant location directly opposite the main railway station with a fantastic view makes the 120m², newly renovated flat the ideal starting point for exploring the city.

The marvellous Eggenberg Palace, the Graz Clock Tower, the Mur Island and the historic old town are all within easy reach in just a few minutes.

The narrow alleyways and streets in Graz's old town are perfect for a stroll all year round. In 1999, UNESCO also recognised the beauty of the city centre and declared it a World Heritage Site.

The baroque palace complex in Eggenberg has also been on this list since 2010 and is rightly considered one of Austria's most valuable cultural assets.

The 3 separate bedrooms with their own Smart TV, high-quality box-spring beds and a large living and dining room make this flat the ideal accommodation for larger groups and families.
