Descripiton of accommodation

"salzachONE" is a newly renovated and furnished apartment in the city of Salzburg. It is located right on the Salzach River, and the loggia provides an evening sun view of the river. Upon arrival by car, you can park in the underground garage and take the elevator directly to the 5th floor to reach the apartment door. If arriving by train, the apartment is just a 10-minute walk away.

Along the Salzach River, you can reach the city center within minutes using the complimentary bicycles provided. The apartment features a new bathroom with underfloor heating and a rain shower. A new fitted kitchen with an induction stove, oven, and freezer is connected to the living area. The sleeping area is comfortably separated, acoustically insulated for absolute quiet during sleep, and can be separated from the living area during the day by a curtain.

The living area includes a stylish sofa bed, two wardrobes, a TV wall with a smart TV, and a spacious dining table with a view of the Salzach. Power outlets are integrated into both the dining area and the TV wall for charging smartphones and notebooks while working.

The apartment is fully equipped with dishes and cutlery, bathroom essentials such as towels and a hairdryer, bedding, and clothes hooks. Two bicycles are provided free of charge. If needed, a Vespa can be rented for faster transportation within the city.

Weekly cleaning with bedding replacement, and replenishment of toilet paper and coffee tabs can be arranged. A parking space in the underground garage is available, and there are numerous short-term parking spaces around the house.
