Descripiton of accommodation

This compact 20 m² studio on the ground floor offers everything needed for a comfortable temporary stay in Innsbruck. The open-plan living and sleeping area is functionally furnished and accommodates up to two people. A dedicated desk and workspace make it particularly well suited for commuters, project workers and business travellers.

The fully equipped private kitchen comes with cooking utensils, tableware, glasses and a microwave – everything you need for day-to-day self-catering. The private bathroom is stocked with towels, a hairdryer, soap and toilet paper, and bed linen is also provided. An iron with ironing board and a vacuum cleaner are available for everyday use.

Wifi and a TV keep you connected and entertained throughout your stay. The building has a lift and a free bicycle storage room. Smoking and pets are not permitted on the premises.

The location in Innsbruck means short distances to the main train station, shops and the old town, with public transport easily reachable on foot. Parking is available in the surrounding short-term parking zone for a fee. The studio is also explicitly suitable for construction workers and tradespeople on assignment.

Infrastructure

The apartment is ideally situated for everyday life in Innsbruck. Several supermarkets, including an MPreis and a Billa Plus, are within a short walk, along with a variety of restaurants, snack bars and a café just steps away. Bus stops are virtually at the doorstep, providing easy access across the city. Innsbruck West railway station is around 600 m away on foot, connecting residents to regional and long-distance train services. For business travelers, expats and project workers, this means minimal commute times, reliable public transport and comfortable day-to-day living without needing a car.
