The apartment is located in a well-connected and urban area of Vienna's 3rd district. The surroundings offer excellent infrastructure, covering both daily needs and leisure opportunities.

Public Transport:

Just a few minutes' walk away is the Kardinal-Nagl-Platz subway station (U3), providing direct access to the city center and other parts of Vienna. The transport network is further complemented by tram and bus lines, such as 71, 77A, and 74A, which provide quick and convenient access to other districts.

Shopping:

Numerous supermarkets, drugstores, and daily necessities stores, including Billa, Spar, and Hofer, are located nearby. The Landstraßer Hauptstraße, one of the main thoroughfares of the district, is easily accessible and offers additional shopping and service options.

Leisure and Recreation:

For outdoor relaxation, the nearby Prater with its expansive park areas and the Donaukanal offer plenty of green space. The Rochusmarkt, known for its culinary variety, is also easily reachable by public transport or bicycle.

Dining:

Numerous restaurants, cafés, and bakeries in the area offer a wide range of local and international dishes. The eateries around Landstraße and the Donaukanal are particularly popular.

Education and Healthcare:

The area is home to kindergartens, schools, and educational institutions. Healthcare services are well-covered with nearby doctor's offices, pharmacies, and the SMZ Ost hospital.

The location of Haidingergasse 28 combines urban living with excellent transport connections and a variety of leisure opportunities – perfect for modern living in Vienna.
