Descripiton of accommodation

The accommodation is part of a semi-detached house in Hof bei Salzburg, featuring its own private entrance and a spacious garden with stunning views of Lake Fuschl. Its tranquil position on the edge of a nature reserve makes it an excellent choice for those looking to combine focused work with genuine relaxation.

Thanks to its hillside location, the living space is spread across several split levels, creating a dynamic layout across 126 m². The property offers two separate bedrooms as well as an additional sleeping area – a side room off the living room furnished with a comfortable sofa bed. One bedroom has an en-suite bathroom, and a second bathroom is also available.

The fully equipped kitchen – complete with dishwasher, steam cooker, coffee machine, and all necessary cookware and tableware – adjoins a dining area overlooking the living space. A dedicated office or second living room on the upper floor, situated between the bedrooms, provides a quiet and comfortable workspace.

Further amenities include a balcony, garden, washing machine, iron and ironing board, vacuum cleaner, hairdryer, as well as bed linen and towels. A private parking space and a free bicycle storage room are also available. Pets are welcome. Regular cleaning can be arranged at an additional cost.
