Descripton of accommodation

This beautiful two-room apartment is located in the heart of the Salzkammergut, on the outskirts of Vöcklabruck in a rural environment. Vöcklabruck train station and the city center are within walking distance in about 20-25 minutes, or can be reached by public transport. The apartment is situated on the first floor of a structurally separate building and is divided as follows: Ground-floor entrance area with a small cloakroom and, on the upper floor, a spacious bedroom facing the garden with an ensuite wet room (shower and washbasin), a fully equipped kitchen with a dining table, a small pantry and a separate living room with a sofa bed, TV and work desk. The apartment also offers a second separate bathroom with toilet and washbasin as well as a small bathtub. In addition, a private terrace with a seating area is available outside. The apartment was built in the mid-1980s and the interior was renovated in 2019. The apartment is characterized by the good layout of the rooms, the cozy atmosphere and the excellent location with a view of the countryside. The apartment also has fiber optic internet. A washing machine and private parking are also available.
