Descripton of accommodation

The apartment impresses with its open room concept. After a lengthy and loving renovation, the apartment will be rented from June 2025.

The bathroom with blue tiles and gold fittings is a small oasis of well-being.

The open kitchen-living room with over 30 m² invites you to linger together. The well-equipped kitchen offers everything you need to cater for yourself. The adjacent terrace is a nice place to end the day in the evening sun.

The double bedroom has windows onto a private road and the garden and is therefore quiet. In the living room there is the possibility of two additional sleeping spaces thanks to the pull-out couch. If required, a cot can be provided.

Since the landlords live in the same house with two small daughters, parties and a lot of noise in the evening are undesirable.
