Description of accommodation

This furnished studio apartment on the third floor offers 18 square metres of everything you need for a focused, no-fuss temporary stay. Its location right next to Wörgl train station is a real advantage for commuters and project staff: quick access, direct connections, and no wasted time on the road.

The apartment is fully furnished and designed for a single occupant. A private kitchen means you can take care of your own meals without relying on outside catering. The private bathroom with toilet is exclusively yours. A dedicated desk makes it easy to get work done in the apartment itself – useful for anyone who needs to review documents in the evening or work remotely.

The apartment is also well suited for tradespeople and construction workers on assignment in the Wörgl area who need a straightforward, properly equipped place to stay. Being so close to the train station makes getting to and from the worksite significantly easier.

Wörgl is a well-connected transport hub in the Tyrolean lowlands, with Innsbruck, Kufstein, and the greater Rosenheim area all within easy reach. For anyone working professionally in this region and looking for a flexible, furnished base without the hassle of setting everything up from scratch, this apartment is a practical and reliable option.
