Descripton of accommodation

Sunny, recently renovated apartment in an old building with 8 m² terrace for chilling out and having breakfast. On the ground floor of the building is the renowned Troststraße pharmacy designed by the artist Skirl. The large living room is very spacious and furnished with a corner sofa bed, TV, dining table and cabinets. Here you can enjoy the afternoon sun and the sunset

The kitchen is very bright and equipped with everything you need. The bathroom is small but very cozy and has a bathtub with shower function. The very artistically designed bedroom faces east, where the quiet inner courtyard is located. This guarantees sleeping comfort is guaranteed. The nostalgic anteroom leads to the well-ventilated WC, the kitchen and the heart of the living area: the cozy 8m² chill-out terrace.
