Infrastructure

-  Multiple supermarkets within 5 minutes walking distance
-  25 minutes by car to the airport or 45 minutes by public transport
-  Only a 5-minute walk to the U1 and U2 underground lines (Vorgartenstraße and Praterstern stations)
-  Only 3 stops by subway to the 1st district

This cozy apartment is situated in one of Vienna's most desirable neighborhoods – the 2nd district – perfectly positioned between the Danube Island, the Prater park, and the Vienna University of Economics and Business. The area offers the ideal balance between city life and nature, with excellent infrastructure and a peaceful yet central location.

Just a short walk from the apartment are two key subway stations: Praterstern (U1, U2) and Vorgartenstraße (U2), offering quick and direct connections throughout the city. Several tram and bus lines are also close by, ensuring maximum flexibility.

All essential services are just around the corner – including supermarkets, drugstores, bakeries, and pharmacies. Everything you need for daily life is within walking distance.

A particular highlight of the area is the Vorgartenmarkt, located just a few minutes' walk from the apartment. This traditional Viennese market offers a colorful mix of fresh produce, delicacies, and numerous charming restaurants. One standout is the Mochi Ramen Bar, which is especially popular and well-known.

Another major plus is the apartment's proximity to the green Prater, one of Europe's largest urban parks – ideal for walking, jogging, cycling, or simply unwinding in nature. The 'Wurstelprater' amusement park, with its mix of classic and modern attractions, is also just a few minutes away and offers fun and variety for all ages.
