Descripton of accommodation

This bright roof top apartment faces east and west, so you wake up with the morning sun, and in the afternoon and evening you enjoy the sun in the living room and on the terrace. The house also has a small garden for common use of all house owners and tenants. The courtyard also offers some parking slots for bikes. With the elevator you reach the apartment entrance without any steps in between.

In addition, there is a car parking place available in the garage for extra rent - 90 EUR/month.

There is air condition in the apartment, in winter you can heat with a convenient floor heating and a cosy wood oven.

The apartment will be rented fully furnished. The furniture is of a high standard quality and all in very good condition.

The kitchen is a fitted kitchen with modern glass fronts, fully equipped with all you need on a daily basis.

The living room does not only have a leather couch, but also a beautiful wood stove for cosy evenings.

The bedroom has a double bed of walnut and a wardrobe in antique style. In addition, there is large walk-in cabinet with open closets, where you can store all your cloths and garderober. Next to the bedroom downstairs, there is large bathroom with a pleasant and spacy shower, and a separate toilet.

On the second floor of the apartment there is a bright gallery. From the windows you have a fantastic view to the Wiener Wald (forest around Vienna). From the gallery you enter the second bathroom, equipped with a bath tube, as well as the studio room. This room can be used as an office, a second bed room, or as a luxury guest room. The studio has a table, a back friendly office chair, sufficient book shelves and a designer couch from Ligne Roset. The couch can be used as such, or transferred into a double bed for your guests.

There is furniture (table and 2 chairs) for the terrace in summer. The terrace is nicely prepared with planting pots.
