Description of accommodation

Small and (very) fine! Right on the border between Vienna's most popular districts, namely the 7th and 8th, lies this gem, which has been lovingly and tastefully polished into a little jewel. Creaking oak floorboards bear witness to the 90-year history of the house and exude charm. You can still look forward to comfort and modern design, as great attention was paid to the choice of materials and furniture.

The personal highlight of this apartment is the reading bench right by the window with a French balcony and a view of two beautiful buildings opposite. This is the perfect place to read a book or watch the hustle and bustle of this pretty neighborhood. A Murphy bed (bed box) allows the studio to be transformed into a perfectly tidy living room in no time at all.

The small, ultra-modern bathroom has an atrium that is an architectural gem. This can also be enjoyed from the perfectly equipped kitchen.
