Description of accommodation

In a quiet yet excellently connected location in Salzburg, this charming studio apartment at Röcklbrunnstraße 16b is the ideal temporary home. With around 35 m² of living space, you can expect a well-thought-out room concept with a pleasantly spacious feel. The heart of the apartment is the bright living and sleeping area with a southwest orientation, which is bathed in daylight thanks to large windows, creating a friendly, inviting atmosphere. The spacious entrance hall offers plenty of storage space with practical built-in cupboards, ensuring everything stays tidy from the moment you move in. The high-quality fitted kitchen is equipped with first-class Miele appliances and blends harmoniously into the living space. A washing machine connection is located directly in the kitchen; in addition, a communal laundry room is available in the basement. The renovated bathroom features contemporary fixtures and a bathtub – ideal for relaxing after a long day. A private basement compartment provides additional storage space. There are plenty of parking spaces available for your vehicle, with convenient access via a barrier system.
