Descripiton of accommodation

This period apartment in Thalgau offers 45 square metres of well-equipped living space for stays of longer duration. Located on the first floor, the apartment features two separate bedrooms, making it a practical choice for couples, small families or two colleagues sharing accommodation.

The private kitchen is fully stocked with cooking utensils, tableware and glasses, a filter coffee machine and a steam cooker. Day-to-day living is well covered with a private washing machine, vacuum cleaner and cleaning supplies. Bed linen and towels are provided, as are a hairdryer, toilet paper and soap.

The bathroom is located in the hallway, and a private toilet is available. A private entrance and a dedicated parking space add real convenience for those arriving by car or travelling frequently for work. Bicycle storage is available free of charge, and guests are welcome to use the shared garden.

The apartment is suitable for children and is also a practical option for construction workers or project staff on longer assignments in the area. Smoking and pets are not permitted. Regular cleaning can be arranged at an additional cost.

Thalgau is situated in the Salzburg Flachgau region, close to Lake Mondsee and with good connections to the greater Salzburg area – a quiet residential setting for anyone working or living in the region on a longer-term basis.
