Descripton of accommodation

This 70 m² apartment in Ansfelden offers everything professionals, expats and project workers need for a comfortable extended stay. Located on the first floor with a private entrance, the apartment ensures complete independence and privacy throughout your time here.

The layout accommodates up to three people, with one separate bedroom and an additional shared sleeping area, providing flexible options depending on your needs. The private bathroom with its own toilet is exclusively yours.

The fully equipped private kitchen makes self-catering straightforward – a real advantage for longer stays. A private washing machine is available in the apartment, and bed linen as well as towels are included. Regular cleaning can be arranged at an additional cost.

One of the apartment's highlights is the terrace, a welcome outdoor space to unwind after a busy working day. A dedicated parking space is available, and free on-street parking without time restrictions is also an option nearby.

Ansfelden is located just south of Linz with good transport connections, making it an ideal base for professionals working in the greater Linz area who want a quiet and practical place to stay. Please note that smoking and pets are not permitted in the apartment.
