Descripton of accommodation

This corner terraced house in Innsbruck offers 105 square metres of generous living space for up to four people. With two separate bedrooms, a private bathroom and its own entrance, it is particularly well suited to professionals, expats or project teams looking for a fully equipped, private home for an extended stay.

The outdoor areas are a real highlight: a balcony, terrace and garden provide space to unwind after a long working day. Parking is straightforward – a private garage is available, and free on-street parking without time restrictions is possible nearby. A free bicycle storage room is also on hand.

The fully equipped kitchen includes a coffee machine, espresso machine, steam cooker, dishwasher and all necessary cooking utensils. A grill and gas grill complete the outdoor offering. Inside, a fitness room and a dedicated desk and workspace make the house equally suitable for those working remotely.

Essentials are fully covered: bed linen, towels, toilet paper, shampoo, soap and Nespresso capsules are all included. A washing machine, iron, vacuum cleaner and cleaning supplies are also available. The house is suitable for children, and pets are welcome upon request.
