Descripton of accommodation

This well-sized 100 m² apartment on the first floor in Salzburg offers generous space for up to five people. With three separate bedrooms plus a shared sleeping area, it suits teams, project groups or families relocating temporarily for work or other longer-term stays.

The apartment is fully furnished and practically equipped for everyday life: a private kitchen with cooking utensils, tableware and glasses lets you cook independently, while a dishwasher keeps things convenient. A private washing machine and dryer are available for laundry, and bed linen is included. Two bathrooms with private toilets ensure that five residents can comfortably share the space without bottlenecks.

The balcony provides a pleasant spot to unwind after a long working day. The apartment is suitable for children, making it a solid choice for families as well. Smoking and pets are not permitted.

Salzburg offers a compact city layout with short distances to businesses, public offices and public transport connections, making it a practical base for professionals and expats alike. The apartment is available from a minimum stay of three months and is aimed at business travellers, expats and project staff looking for a reliable, fully equipped home away from home.
