Descripiton of accommodation

This 52 m² two-room apartment on the fifth floor offers a calm retreat with open views across the rooftops of Salzburg. A lift in the building makes everyday life easy – whether arriving with luggage or returning from the shops.

The apartment is fully furnished and suitable for up to three people. The private kitchen comes equipped with a dishwasher, coffee machine, cooking utensils, and tableware – everything you need to settle in right away. Bed linen and towels are included, along with a vacuum cleaner, iron and ironing board, and cleaning supplies for a self-sufficient stay.

A standout feature is the loggia with its wide-open views, plus access to a shared rooftop terrace – a welcome retreat after a long working day. Wi-Fi and TV are available throughout. Laundry is covered with both a private and a communal washing machine in the building.

A bicycle room is available free of charge. Street parking in the surrounding area falls within a short-term parking zone and is subject to a fee. Children are welcome, and pets may be permitted upon request.

This apartment is an ideal choice for professionals, expats, and project workers looking for a reliably equipped, flexible home base in Salzburg.
