Descripiton of accommodation

This 58 m² apartment on the second floor impresses with its south-facing orientation, large windows and an abundance of natural daylight. The view towards the green hills of Sulzberg creates a calm, residential atmosphere – without compromising on connectivity.

The apartment is fully furnished and practically equipped: a separate bedroom plus a spacious living area with additional sleeping space accommodate up to three people. The fully equipped kitchen includes a coffee machine, cooking utensils, glasses and tableware. Bed linen and towels are provided, along with a private washing machine, vacuum cleaner and cleaning supplies – everything needed for a comfortable, self-sufficient stay.

The location works well even without a car: Kammer-Schörfling train station is reachable on foot in around 14 minutes, and a bus stop is just nearby. The Kammererbahn line connects directly to Vöcklabruck, and Linz as well as Vienna are easily accessible by public transport. For those travelling by car, the motorway connection is quick and a private parking space is available directly at the building.

Within minutes you can reach the Agersee swimming area, the Attersee lakeside promenade with its beaches and harbour, as well as restaurants, cafés and everyday shops. Cycling paths along the Ager river are ideal for unwinding after work. A bicycle storage room is available free of charge.

This apartment is particularly well suited for commuters, project staff and anyone looking for a longer-term base in the Salzkammergut region – offering genuine residential comfort rather than a hotel experience.
