Descripiton of accommodation

The Drachenwandblick apartment is located on the second floor of a residential building in Mondsee and offers around 100 square metres of comfortable living space for up to four people. With two separate bedrooms, as well as a private bathroom, it is well suited for families, project teams or colleagues working together in the region over an extended period.

The apartment is fully equipped for everyday living: a private kitchen with dishwasher, coffee machine and all necessary cooking utensils allows for convenient self-catering. A private washing machine and dryer are available, and bed linen and towels are included. For remote work, high-speed Wi-Fi and a printer are on hand. The open fireplace creates a pleasant atmosphere on cooler evenings, while the balcony offers a quiet retreat during warmer months.

The town of Mondsee provides easy access to everyday amenities including shops, restaurants and public transport connections. Free short-term parking is available in the surrounding area. The apartment is suitable for children, and pets may be brought along upon request. Smoking is not permitted inside.

A flexible check-in window between 10:00 and 22:00 makes arrival straightforward after a long working day or a longer journey.
