Descripiton of accommodation

Flexible short-term living in Lustenau

In Lustenau, we offer well-maintained, fully furnished rooms in a shared flat for short-term rental. The accommodation is ideal for professionals on project assignments or construction work, commuters, interns, students, or anyone looking for a straightforward temporary housing solution.

Each room comes equipped with a bed, mattress and wardrobe – just bring your suitcase and move straight in. The bright shared kitchen is fully stocked: coffee machine, espresso machine with Nespresso capsules, microwave, dishwasher, cooking utensils and tableware are all available. Two shared bathrooms provide ample facilities for the flat.

Internet and WiFi, a TV and a washing machine are included as standard. Bed linen, towels and toilet paper are provided, and regular cleaning is included free of charge. Free street parking with no time restrictions is available directly nearby.

All utilities – electricity, water, heating, internet and waste disposal – are included in the rent, with no hidden additional costs. The accommodation is also suitable for construction workers. Smoking is not permitted; pets may be allowed on request.

Lustenau is located in the Rhine Valley close to the Swiss border, with excellent connections to Dornbirn, Bregenz and the Lake Constance region – a convenient base for anyone working professionally in Vorarlberg.

Infrastructure

right in front of the building

Hofer can be reached in 8 minutes on foot or 5 minutes by bus.

The shared apartment room in Lustenau is ideally positioned for day-to-day convenience. A bus stop is located right outside, providing easy onward connections throughout the area. Several restaurants and cafés are within immediate walking distance, including a McDonald's just a couple of minutes away. Two supermarkets, Aldi and Hofer, are roughly 600 metres from the door, making grocery runs straightforward. The location suits business travellers, commuters and project staff who need efficient access to everyday amenities without spending time on long detours.
