Infrastructure

Merkur 200 meter walking distance

The picturesque first district makes up the historical heart of Vienna, where the magnificent Ringstraße, historical architecture, government buildings, touristic enterprises and large company headquarters come together to make the first district not only the touristic, but also the economic center of the city. As the oldest of Vienna's districts, dating back to the Roman ages, it has found a place on the UNESCO World Heritage list. The grand pedestrian shopping streets Graben and Kärntner Straße join at the central St. Stephen's Square (Stephansplatz), where locals and tourists alike come together to enjoy the historic sights, browse through one of the many fashion stores, relish in a traditional Melange and Sacher cake in one of the famous Viennese coffee houses, or just stroll through the winding side streets and take in the Viennese atmosphere.

The apartment is located on the walking part of Judengasse, which is located very close to St. Rupert's Church, a picturesque 8th-century church with medieval, Gothic, Romanesque & Renaissance elements. Some of Vienna's most note-worthy sights, such as the Hofburg Palace complex, City Hall and St. Stephen's Cathedral are just 15 minutes of walking away. Lovers of arts, sciences, and imperial collections can enjoy a trip to the Fine Arts Museum (Kunsthistorisches Museum), Natural History Museum (Naturhistorisches Museum), Albertina Museum or Imperial Treasury (Kaiserliche Schatzkammer). The apartment is only 7-minute-walk from Schwedensplatz station, allowing guests to access to metro lines U1 and U4, as well as tramlines 1, 2 and the tourists' Ring Tram. These connections make Vienna's famous sights along the Ring road of the old city as well as attractions such as Prater Museum park become assessable. A unique location to discover the city and all its hidden side streets on foot.

and restaurants

Right at the base of the building are numerous of bars and restaurants offer guests with different dining options. Take a short walk to the Hohe Markt, and join the locals at Joma café, brassiere and bar for all-day dining service, or sample the Viennese cuisine at a young and hip imbiss Schachtelwirt. Nearby the St. Stephen's cathedral church is Neuer Markt, located the lovely French Bistro Le Bol, where you could grab a lunch before spending the afternoon enjoying a traditional Melange and treat at Kurkonditorei Oberlaa or Café Hawelka. You can further soak in the infamous Viennese coffee house culture in traditional favourites such as the Café Central, Café Landtmann or Café Sacher. For an authentic Viennese dinner, head to Figl Mueller or Lugeck (reservations recommended), before topping off the evening with delicious cocktail or Spritzer overlooking the Danube canal and the old city from Das Loft restaurant and bar of hotel Sofitel.
