Infrastructure

Hofer 50 meter walking distance

Margareten, the fifth district of Vienna, is located adjacent to the city centre and therefore counts as one of the city's inner districts. It is a heavily populated urban area, with many residential homes and an eclectic mix of workers, middle class, Bohemians and students. Its proximity to the city centre, and surrounding inner districts make it a great starting point to explore Vienna and the city's most notable sights. Visit Margareten Square (Margaretenplatz), the district's biggest older square, to experience the area's local charm. To the Northwest, the district is bordered by the Naschmarkt – an unconventional, lively market place, lined with everything from exotic spices, regional specialities, high-end restaurants to cute little delis.

The apartment is located in Reinprechtsdorfer street, a street in the heart of Margareten area. If you stroll down this street, you will reach the belt road of Vienna in 5 minutes. If you cross over both the Rechte and Linke Wienzeile, you will already find yourself in the equally charming 6th district. Just 3 minutes in either directions of the street, you could find supermarkets nearby Hofer and Lidl, which make preparing your own meal convenient. The metro station Pilgramgasse, which connects you to the U4 is just 10 minutes walking from your door. The U4 will take you directly to the beautiful Schönbrunn Palace and Gardens Complex, a must-see sight during your visit to Vienna. If you take the line in the opposite direction, you will find yourself in the city centre in just a few minutes. Bus 14A - Reinprechtsdorfer Brücke (Reinprechtsdorfer bridge) will take you to the heart of the young hip 7th district, and to the walking shopping street of Mariahilferstrasse.

Directly opposite the building, you would find an Viennese restaurant Zum lieben Augustin. Nevertheless, various dining options are available just around the 4 corners of the street. For those that want a more traditional Viennese café experience, we recommend a visit to Café Siebenbrunnen or Gregor's Konditorei. During your stay, you also cannot miss heading down to Naschmarkt for a breakfast, lunch or dinner. Our recommendations include Deli Naschmarkt for a light lunch, or On Market with its exotic interior for some fine Asian cuisine.
