Descripton of accommodation

The apartment was completely renovated a couple of years ago and furnished with great attention to detail. Numerous design pieces and many practical accessories have found their way into the apartment in order to make it as pleasant as possible for the future resident: from the high-speed Internet to the city bike, everything is designed so that you only have to move in with your suitcase.

The apartment is located in the flourishing Gries district - only a 7-minute walk from the old town! It is located on the 2nd floor of a beautiful old building with few residential units and has a green view (park). Especially impressive is the feeling of open space in this apartment (3.60 meters room height).
